Comments

Selling at Absolute Auction Thursday July 13th 6:00PM on site. The 53.1 acre property is a fantastic building site as it includes the old farmstead with all of the trees, a few old barns. The balance of the property includes lots of trees and timber, pasture and a pond. This is a tough property to find with all of the character and only $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile to black top.

Seller's Agent

The seller's agent represents the seller only, so the buyer may be either unrepresented or represented by another agent. The seller's agent is responsible for performing the following duties:

- Promoting the interests of the seller with utmost good faith, loyalty and fidelity;
- Protecting the seller's confidences, unless disclosure is required;
- Presenting all offers in a timely manner;
- Advising the seller to obtain expert advice;
- Accounting for all money and property received;
- Disclosing to the seller all adverse material facts about the buyer that the agent knows; and
- Disclosing to the buyer all adverse material facts actually known by the agent, including:
 - Environmental hazards affecting the property that are required to be disclosed;
 - The physical condition of the property;
 - Any material defects in the property, or in the title to the property; and
 - Any material limitation on the seller's ability to complete the contract.

The seller's agent has no duty to:

- Conduct an independent inspection of the property for the benefit of the buyer; or
- Independently verify the accuracy or completeness of any statement by the seller or any qualified third party.

Designated Seller's Agent

The designated agent is a seller's agent who has been designated by the broker to represent the seller to the exclusion of all other licensees affiliated with the firm. The designated agent performs all the duties of a seller's agent, while the other agents in the firm perform the duties of a transaction broker, unless they have a buyer agency agreement.

Buyer's Agent

The buyer's agent represents the buyer only, so the seller may be either unrepresented or represented by another agent. The buyer's agent is responsible for performing the following duties:

- Promoting the interests of the buyer with utmost good faith, loyalty and fidelity;
- Protecting the buyer's confidences, unless disclosure is required;
- Presenting all offers in a timely manner;
- Advising the buyer to obtain expert advice;
- Accounting for all money and property received;
- Disclosing to the buyer all adverse material facts that the agent knows; and
- Disclosing to the seller all adverse material facts actually known by the agent, including all material facts concerning the buyer's financial ability to perform the terms of the transaction.

The buyer's agent has no duty to:

- Conduct an independent investigation of the buyer's financial condition for the benefit of the seller; or
- Independently verify the accuracy or completeness of statements made by the buyer or any qualified third party.

Designated Buyer's Agent

The designated agent is a buyer's agent who has been designated by the broker to represent the buyer to the exclusion of all other licensees affiliated with the firm. The designated agent may show properties listed by other agents in the designated agent's firm. The designated agent performs all duties of a buyer's agent, while the other agents in the firm perform the duties of a seller's agent or a transaction broker.

Transaction Broker

The transaction broker is not an agent for either party, so the transaction broker does not advocate the interests of either party. The transaction broker is responsible for performing the following duties:

- Protecting the confidences of both parties, including the following information:
 - The fact that a buyer is willing to pay more;
 - The fact that a seller is willing to accept less;
 - The factors that are motivating any party;
 - The fact that a party will agree to different financing terms; and
 - Any information or personal confidences about a party that might put the other party at an advantage.
- Exercising reasonable skill and care;
- Presenting all offers in a timely manner;
- Advising the parties regarding the transaction;
- Suggesting that the parties obtain expert advice;
- Accounting for all money and property received;
- Keeping the parties fully informed;
- Assisting the parties in closing the transaction;
- Disclosing to the buyer all adverse material facts actually known by the transaction broker, including the following:
 - Environmental hazards affecting the property that are required to be disclosed;
 - The physical condition of the property;
 - Any material defects in the property or in the title to the property;
 - Any material limitation on the seller's ability to complete the contract.
- Disclosing to the seller all adverse material facts actually known by the transaction broker, including all material facts concerning the buyer's financial ability to perform the terms of the transaction.

The transaction broker has no duty to:

- Conduct an independent inspection of the property for the benefit of any party;
- Conduct an independent investigation of the buyer's financial condition;
- Independently verify the accuracy or completeness of statements made by the seller, buyer or any qualified third party.

PRIVACY POLICY

We Are Committed to Safeguarding Customer Information

In order to better serve your needs now and in the future, we may ask you to provide us with certain information. We understand that you may be concerned about what we will do with such information - particularly any personal and/or financial information. We agree that you have a right to know how we will utilize the personal information you provide us. Therefore, we have adopted this Privacy Policy to govern the use and handling of your personal information.

APPLICABILITY

This Privacy Policy governs our use of the information that you provide to us. It does not govern the manner in which we may use information we have obtained from any other source, such as information obtained from a public record or from another person or entity.

TYPES OF INFORMATION

Depending upon which of our services you are utilizing, the type of nonpublic personal information that we may collect include:

Information we receive from you on applications, forms and in other communications to us, whether in writing, by telephone or any other means; Information about your transactions with us, our affiliated companies, or others; and; Information we receive from a consumer-reporting agent.

USE OF INFORMATION

We request information from you for our own legitimate business purposes and not for the benefit of any nonaffiliated party. Therefore, we will not release your information to nonaffiliated parties except: (1) as necessary for us to provide the product or service you have requested of us; or (2) as permitted by law. We may, however, store such information indefinitely, including the period after which any customer relationship has ceased. Such information may be used for any internal purpose, such as quality control efforts or customer analysis. We may also provide all of the types of nonpublic personal information listed above to one or more of our affiliated companies. Such affiliated companies include financial service providers, such as title insurers, property and casualty insurers and trust and investment advisory companies, and escrow companies. Furthermore, we may also provide all the information we collect, as described above, to companies that perform marketing services on our behalf, on behalf of our affiliated companies, or to other financial institutions with whom our affiliated companies have joint marketing agreements.

FORMER CUSTOMERS

Even if you are no longer our customer, our Privacy Policy will continue to apply to you.

CONFIDENTIALITY AND SECURITY

We will use our best efforts to ensure that no unauthorized parties have access to any of your information. We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those individuals and entities that need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We will use our best efforts to train and oversee our employees and agents to ensure that your information will be handled responsibly and in accordance with this Privacy Policy. We currently maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.

This commitment is valid only if Schedule A, B1 and BII are attached.

CONDITIONS

1. The term mortgage, when used herein, shall include deed of trust, trust deed or other security instrument.
2. If the proposed Insured has or acquired actual knowledge of any defect, lien, encumbrance, adverse claim or other matter affecting the estate or interest or mortgage thereon covered by this Commitment other than those shown in Schedule B hereof, and shall fail to disclose such knowledge to the Company in writing, the Company shall be relieved from liability for any loss or damage resulting from any act of reliance hereon to the extent the Company is prejudiced by failure to so disclose such knowledge. If the proposed Insured shall disclose such knowledge to the Company, or if the Company otherwise acquires actual knowledge of any such defect, lien, encumbrance, adverse claim or other matter, the Company at its option may amend Schedule B of this Commitment accordingly, but such amendment shall not relieve the Company from liability previously incurred pursuant to paragraph 3 of these Conditions.
3. Liability of the Company under this Commitment shall be only to the named proposed Insured and such parties included under the definition of Insured in the form of policy or policies committed for and only for actual loss incurred in reliance hereon in undertaking in good faith (a) to comply with the requirements hereof, or (b) to eliminate exceptions shown in schedule B, or (c) to acquire or create the estate or interest or mortgage thereon covered by the Commitment. In no event shall such liability exceed the amount stated in Schedule A for the policy or policies committed for and such liability is subject to the insuring provisions and Conditions and the Exclusion from Coverage of the form of policy or policies committed for in favor of the proposed Insured which are hereby incorporated by reference and are made a part of this Commitment except as expressly modified herein.
4. This Commitment is a contract to issue one or more title insurance policies and is not an abstract of title or a report of the condition of title. Any action or actions or rights of action that the proposed Insured may have or may bring against the Company arising out of the status of the title to the estate or interest or the status of the mortgage thereon covered by this Commitment must be based on and are subject to the provisions of this Commitment.
5. This paragraph is intentionally deleted.
