

Broker Disclosure

The lagoon is just south of the cabin / shop it has been used for years but will not pass current code.

The power line to the well has been cut by a mower. I will mark the general location of the break with green marking paint before the auction closes.

In these rains the roof is leaking above the bathroom. The metal roof will need to be sealed.